Rep. Clark Scores Roosevelt Critics

est in getting Mr. Roosevelt

The remark and the acrimoniou exchange that ensued came in connection with debate on a measure extending the time for prosecution of the prewar Pearl Harbor commanders on charges of dereliction of duty when the Japanese struck. Clark objected that the Congress should not "direct" courts martial when it extends the statute of limitations as the bill now provides. He said it should not issue a "peremptory instruction."

"Many on the minority side will be disappointed if they do not find anything wrong with the conduct of the war," Clark said.

"There are too many who would rather see Pres. Roosevelt put of the White House than see Hitler put out of Berlin." Rep. Fish promptly declared speech made recently more calculated to "create disunity." "The army and the navy are made up of Republicans and
